EXCELLENT SCHEME.

The tree-planting on some of the public roads of the district that has been in the hands of W. J. Coelho, has been carried along to a successful issue and many trees have been planted that will in time make our roads a pleasure to drive over. Nearly every tree is doing well, as the trees were carefully planted and have since been cared for and given a good start.—Maui News.

Everybody received invitations to the supper and everyone went away satisfied with the good things they ate and drank.—Maui News.

GOV. CARTER AND THE ARGONAUT

Del Monte, May 19, 1906.

Editor Argonaut: Please begin anew my subscription from date of first issue after the fire. Mail me here all issues up to and including this week, after which to my old address, Honolulu, Hawaii. My former subscription was made to January 1, but it is only fair to begin a new record.

Sincerely yours,

GEORGE R. CARTER.

Some weeks ago the Governor of Hawaii, being very ill, was ordered by his physicians to this Coast. He arrived here in time to go through the disaster of a few weeks ago. We are glad to see by his letter that his health has not suffered in consequence, but that he has apparently much improved. For a man who has been desperately ill, and who still can take the trouble to write a letter renewing and extending his subscription to a newspaper for which he has already paid, is certainly taking altruistic and optimistic views of life. We congratulate Governor Carter on his improved health and thank him for his encouraging letter and the extension of his subscription, which, however, we shall take the liberty of dating from the expiration of his present one—not, be it understood, because we are looking a gift horse in the mouth, but simply to keep our accounts straight.—Editor Argonaut.
